IMPACT: No Fiscal Impact

Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that chiropractors, optometrists, and podiatrists are eligible to provide patient care at county hospitals. The bill requires a county hospital's governing board and the board of the Health and Hospital Corporation of Marion County to establish standards to govern practice in the hospital and the granting and retaining of privileges.

The bill requires a hearing before a peer review committee in certain circumstances before a health care provider's privileges are terminated. It also exempts from civil liability certain activities of a peer review committee.

Effective Date: July 1, 2006.
